

Terms and Conditions for using Alliance learning materials

Licensing and Copyright

Unless otherwise stated in a specific package, Alliance learning products are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 licence (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0). They are attributed to the Alliance for Child Protection in Humanitarian Action (The Alliance). To view a copy of the licence, visit <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>.

You are free to:

- Share — copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format;
- Adapt — remix, transform, and build upon the material.

The licensor cannot revoke these freedoms as long as you follow the licence terms of:

- Attribution — You must give appropriate credit, provide a link to the licence, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.
- NonCommercial — You may not use the material for commercial purposes.
- ShareAlike — If you remix, transform, or build upon the material, you must distribute your contributions under the same licence as the original.
- No additional restrictions — You may not apply legal terms or technological measures that legally restrict others from doing anything the licence permits.

Commercial use

Alliance learning materials may not be used for commercial purposes. No profit should be gained from delivering a learning event using Alliance learning materials. If you have queries on this point, or wish to charge for a learning event using Alliance learning materials, please contact learning@alliancecpha.org

Acknowledgements and citations

When using or quoting Alliance learning materials we request that the Alliance's authorship is acknowledged and the relevant citation is given. Most Alliance learning packages include a suggested citation towards the beginning of the document. Where this is not available, the following wording is suggested: The Alliance for Child Protection in Humanitarian Action [(year of resource publication)] [Name of learning package]. For example, The Alliance for Child Protection in Humanitarian Action (2022) CAAFAG Programme Development Toolkit. Training guide.

If you adapt an Alliance learning package, please include the following acknowledgement: “This learning material has been adapted from material produced by the Alliance for Child Protection in Humanitarian Action, and acknowledges the Alliance as the original source.”

Endorsement and certification

A learning event may only be described as endorsed by the Alliance when the Alliance has been actively involved in the planning and implementation of the event.

The Alliance is currently not in the position to support its members in issuing Alliance certificates or digital badges when delivering the content of Alliance learning packages.

We wish to encourage the broadest possible dissemination of Alliance learning packages. The L&D Working Group co-leads remain available to support the adaptation and contextualisation of Alliance learning packages, and can be contacted on learning@alliancecpha.org.

Translations

The Alliance endeavours to make its learning resources available in its core operating languages of English, French, Spanish and Arabic. We are reliant on funding to do so, and it is therefore not always possible.

In progress translations will not appear on the Facilitators hub. To check if a translation is forthcoming, please write to the relevant Working Group or Task Force of the Alliance, or contact learning@alliancecpha.org

We welcome support to translate Alliance learning materials into additional languages. If you have funds to translate a learning package (in full or in part) into an additional language, please contact the L&D Working Group to ensure that this is done in partnership with the Alliance. The Alliance will make the all translated materials available for wider dissemination.
